IAC-M-277

12 February 1957

1. Approval of Minutes
29 January Meeting
(IAC-M-276)

Approved as written.

2. Review of Crisis Situations

- a. Watch Committee Reports
No. 339 and No. 340

Noted these reports.

- b. Situation in Jordan

The members discussed a CIA report on this situation, dated 11 February, which had been circulated to the members prior to the meeting. They also exchanged views on other information and intelligence from various sources bearing on developments in Jordan.

The members then discussed the nature of the formal action which the IAC should take with respect to this report. After various members had expressed their views, the Chairman stated, and the members concurred, that the action in this instance should not be considered tantamount to IAC approval of, or concurrence in, specific language in the paper, as in the case of estimates, but rather should be construed to reflect general agreement that the situation outlined was sufficiently critical to warrant calling it to the attention of policy makers and the principals of IAC members. With respect to specific dissemination, Mr. Dulles proposed, and the members agreed, that the report, as amended, be passed to the White House, Secretary of State, Secretary of Defense, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and General Cutler, as well as to IAC members. In response to a query by General Lewis, the Chairman emphasized that he suggested distribution to these particular recipients because of his responsibility, as intelligence advisor to the NSC, to keep members of the NSC informed as to such developments, and that individual IAC members should continue to be the normal channels for transmission of such intelligence to their principals. The members also considered and (in renewed discussion following item 6) approved the form of the covering memorandum to be used in disseminating this report.

6. NIE 12-57
Stability and Cohesion of the Soviet Satellite Structure

After a discussion of this paper, the Chairman suggested, and the members concurred, that final action be deferred until the next regular meeting of the IAC. It was also agreed that, prior to further action by the IAC, the IAC representatives should consider this estimate again in the light of this discussion and any additional review by individual members.

7. NSC Communications

The Chairman outlined and discussed generally with the members certain communications from the National Security Council bearing on activities of the IAC or individual components of the intelligence community.

8. Executive Session

At 1240, the Chairman requested an executive session.
